

PHILANTHROPY SERVICES RESOURCES

T.D. Jakes Foundation

The T.D. Jakes Foundation aims to serve as a bridge between need and opportunity, bringing together diverse constituencies to achieve positive results for both business and communities. They do so through the three pillars-business partnerships, workforce readiness, and community building.

Color of Change

Color of Change is the nation's largest online racial justice community with more than 1.5 million members. Their mission is to change both the written and unwritten rules of society- in politics, culture, the economy, criminal justice, and community life- and champion solutions that move everyone forward.

Equal Justice Initiative

The Equal Justice Initiative is committed to ending mass incarceration and excessive punishment in the United States, to challenging racial and economic injustice, and to protecting basic human rights for the most vulnerable people in American society.

NAACP Legal Defense Fund

The NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund is a legal organization fighting for racial justice. They seek structural changes to expand democracy, eliminate disparities, and achieve racial justice in society through litigation, advocacy, and public education. They advocate for policies at the federal, state, and local levels to advance police accountability and reform.

The Bail Project

The Bail Project's mission is to combat racial and economic disparities in the bail system. The Bail Project National Revolving Bail Fund provides free bail assistance to low-income individuals who are legally presumed innocent. Because bail is returned at the end of a case, donations can be recycled and reused to pay bail two to three times per year.

National Urban League

The National Urban League's mission is to help African Americans and others in underserved communities achieve their highest true social parity, economic self-reliance, power, and civil rights. The League promotes economic empowerment through education and job training, housing and community development, workforce development, entrepreneurship, health, and quality of life.
